Facilities for village postmen

†1891. MS. SUSHILA TIRIYA:
SHRI MOTILAL VORA:

Will the Minister of COMMUNICATIONS AND INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY be pleased to state:

(a) the number of postmen working presently in rural areas, the State-wise details thereof;

(b) whether these postmen are not being granted pension, gratuity, leave etc. by Government;

(c) if not, the reasons therefor;

(d) whether Government has received any memorandum regarding regularization of rural postmen; and

(e) if so, the steps being taken by Government in this direction?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF COMMUNICATIONS AND INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY (SHRI JYOTIRADITYA MADHAVRAO SCINDIA): (a) There are 103597 Postmen engaged in the rural areas. State-wise details are given in the Statement. (See below)

(b) and (c) The Regular Departmental Postman working in Departmental Sub Offices' in Rural Area appointed before 01.01.2004 are granted Pension, Gratuity, Leave, etc. Regular Departmental Postman appointed after 01.01.2004 are covered by the New Pension Scheme of the Government.

93632 Gramin Dak Sevak, Delivery Agents, engaged to deliver the mail in the rural areas are not regular Government employees. They are part-time workers who perform duty upto a maximum of 5 hours daily. According to GDS Conduct and Employment Rules, 2001 they are not entitled to pension. They are paid, Ex-gratia Gratuity up to Rs. 18,000/- on their discharge from the service and paid leave @ 10 days for every half year without the provision of carry forward of encashment.

(d) and (e) The Memoranda and representations received from the GDS representatives have been examined by the Government from time to time. The present position is in consonance with the Judgement of Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Supdt. Of Post Offices vs. P.K. Rajamma wherein the Apex Court has held that 'Extra Departmental Agents are holders of civil post but they are outside the regular civil service'. They are governed by separate set of Conduct and Employment Rule — 2001, which are non statutory rules.
